

Ghost Girls Books at your school!

Author Karen Chilton is happy to visit students in grades 5 and up in their schools.

A visit including a reading from Ghost Girls, Book One: The Haunting on Devil's Den Road, a question-and-answer session, and discussion of the historical context of the Ghost Girls Books storylines is available free of charge to all public schools in Rhode Island, Connecticut and Massachusetts. Travel fees apply to schools in other states, and appearance fees may apply to private schools. Please send an email to katherine@ghostgirlsbooks.com for quotes.

Visits last approximately one hour, but may be adjusted to fit school schedules and students' needs.

Visits must be scheduled by a teacher, school administrator or parent-teacher organization representative with the permission of the school administration.

Prior to the visit, students may place orders for Ghost Girls, Book One: The Haunting on Devil's Den Road and/or Ghost Girls, Book Two: The Ghost at Widower's Pond through a school representative, and the preordered copies will be delivered at the time of Karen Chilton's school visit. Copies may also be made available for sale on the day of the visit. Any and all sales will be made at the request of the host teacher, parent or school administrator and with the permission of the school administration. Sales are not a required part of a school visit.

Book sales may also be made as a fundraiser for the school or a school organization.
